Regulations of the "BRAINHACK Krakow 2026" event

§ 1

DEFINITIONS

The terms used in these Terms and Conditions shall have the following meanings:

a) Abstract - a text (abstract) presenting the title and main assumptions of the poster submitted for the Event.

b) Agenda - material and time schedule of the Event located on the website https://brainhackkrakow.org/

c) Committee – a scientific committee appointed by the Organizers, consisting of representatives of the Organizers, which selects the Abstracts enabling the Participant to present the poster during the Event.

d) Organizers - means:

i. Sano – Centre for Individualized Computational Medicine – International Research Foundation with its registered office in Krakow, at 36 Czarnowiejska Street, building 10. C5, 30-054 Cracow entered into the Register of Entrepreneurs and the Register of Associations, Other Social and Professional Organizations, Foundations and Independent Public Health Care Institutions of the National Court Register by the District Court for Cracow-Śródmieście in Cracow, XI Commercial Division of the National Court Register under the number KRS 0000797490, NIP 6772446472, REGON 384298430 (hereinafter: "Sano") and

ii. Jagiellonian University with its registered office in Krakow at 24 Gołębia Street, 31-007 Krakow (hereinafter referred to as "Jagiellonian University"),

e) Regulations – these regulations of an event organized by the Organizers made available on the Event Website at https://brainhackkrakow.org/regulations in a way that allows it to be obtained, reproduced and recorded without access to the Internet.

f) Speaker – a person who has received an invitation to give a lecture from the Organizers.

g) Event Website – a page used to register participation in the Event, where information about the Event is provided, including the Terms and Conditions and the Agenda.

h) Participant – an adult natural person with full legal capacity, who has declared his/her willingness to participate in the Event in accordance with the provisions of these Terms and Conditions or who has accepted the Organiser's invitation to participate in the Event and has registered for participation in the Event in the manner referred to in § 2 of the Terms and Conditions, has accepted the Terms and Conditions and has received information from the Organiser about his/her qualification to participate in the Event, who participates in the Event in a passive or active form (as a speaker);

i) Volunteer – a person with whom Sano has signed a volunteering agreement.

j) Event – an event entitled "BRAINHACK Krakow 2026" on November 7-8, 2026 at the Institute of Psychology of the Jagiellonian University at 6 Ingardena Street in Krakow.

k) Partners – partners of the Event indicated on the Event Website.

§ 2

GENERAL PROVISIONS, REGISTRATION AND CONDITIONS OF PARTICIPATION

1. The Organizers of the Event are Sano and the Jagiellonian University. Whenever the Regulations refer to the granting of rights to the Organizers, it is understood as a separate grant of rights to each of the Organizers (permission, license and similar rights).
2. The event will take place on 7-8 November 2026 at the Institute of Psychology of the Jagiellonian University at 6 Ingardena Street in Krakow.
3. The event will be conducted in English. The organizers do not provide an interpreter.
4. Participation in the Event can take two forms of participation:
    a. online, i.e. in real time, via the online platform for online meetings MS Teams, to which the registered Participant will gain access via a link sent by the Organizer to the e-mail address indicated in the application form
    b. by the Participant appearing at the venue of the Event.

    The Participant chooses one of the forms of participation in the Event in the application form.
5. Registration for participation in the Event is made by correctly filling in the application form posted on the Event Website and ticking the appropriate selection button, in which the registering person declares that he/she is familiar with the Terms and Conditions and accepts their provisions.
6. A person who wishes to take part in the Event may also submit a willingness to present a poster by sending an Abstract together with the application form in accordance with the provisions of §4 below.
7. Filling in and submitting the application form along with ticking the appropriate selection button referred to in paragraph 5 is tantamount to acceptance of these Terms and Conditions and granting consents, licenses and permits provided for therein and is an obligatory condition for registering for participation in the Event.
8. The Organizers are not responsible for the consequences of providing incorrect data when registering for the Event or submitting Abstracts. The Participant is obliged to update his/her contact details.
9. A maximum of 80 Participants can take part in the Event. The Organizers reserve the right to terminate the acceptance of applications early in the event of exhaustion of places.
10. In the first place, the status of a Participant will be given to persons who have accepted the Organizer's invitation to participate in the Event and have made a correct registration. Then, if there are available places, persons who have applied for active participation in the Event, sent Abstracts or are their co-authors and received information from the Organizers about their acceptance to participate in the Event, and then persons who have expressed their will to passively participate in the Event and have made a correct registration - according to the criterion of the order of their applications.
11. The Event may also be attended by Volunteers who are not included in the limit of Participants referred to in paragraph 10. Volunteers are obliged to fill in the registration form on the Event Website in accordance with paragraph 5 and accept the content of the Terms and Conditions.
12. Qualified Participants will be informed of this fact by e-mail, to the e-mail address indicated in the application form. The Organizers reserve the right to use the e-mail address provided during registration for the Event in order to notify the Event Participants and confirm the right to participate in the Event. The person applying for participation in the Event acquires the right to participate in the Event at the moment of receiving confirmation from the Organizers of qualification to participate in the Event.

13. In case of any technical problems or doubts or other matters related to the Event, the Participant should contact the Organizers at the e-mail address: brainhack.krk2026@sanoscience.org. The approximate response time is 3 working days, however, the Organizer reserves the right to respond within a longer period.
14. The Organizer reserves the right to deny the Participant participation in the Event in the event of a violation of the provisions of these Regulations, in particular in the case of making false statements in the application form.
15. The Event Agenda is available on the Event website and is subject to change, including changes in the time schedule and order of speeches, which do not constitute a change to the Regulations. The amended Agenda will be published on the Event Website.
16. The Participant has the right to resign from participation in the Event in the event of important, unforeseen circumstances until 01.11.2026. The Participant is obliged to inform the Organizer immediately by sending information to the e-mail address: brainhack.krk2026@sanoscience.org.
17. In the event of the Participant's resignation, the Organizer will inform the next persons from the reserve list about the possibility of taking part in the Event. The person informed in this way is obliged to provide an answer regarding the willingness to take part in the Event within 3 calendar days from the date of receipt of information about the possibility of participating in the Event.
18. The event is free of charge for Participants.
19. Each Participant is obliged to comply with the provisions of law and these Terms and Conditions.

§ 3
REMOTE PARTICIPATION IN THE EVENT

1. Participants participating remotely in the Event are obliged to participate in it in accordance with the applicable law, the rules of social coexistence, these Terms and Conditions, the rules of using the MS Teams platform and accepted customs, in particular without violating the rights of other participants of the Event.
2. Remote participation in the Event requires the Participant to have an ICT system that meets the following minimum technical requirements:
   a) a device with Internet access,
   b) an up-to-date web browser (e.g. Chrome, Firefox, Safari),
   c) an active e-mail account,
   d) access to the MS Teams service (without the need to have an account - with access via a link in a web browser).
3. The Participant is obliged not to send or publish illegal content in connection with participation in the Event, violating the rights of third parties or good morals.
4. The participant uses the broadcast only for their own use. It is prohibited to:
   a) record, copy or distribute the content of the Event,
   b) making the link to the broadcast available to persons not authorised to participate in the Event.
5. The Organizer is not responsible for technical problems on the part of the Participants that may affect the possibility of participating in the Event, in particular related to the Internet connection.

6. The Organizer shall not be liable for disruptions, including interruptions, in the functioning of the MS Teams platform caused by force majeure, unauthorized actions of third parties or incompatibility of the platform with the Participant's IT infrastructure.

§ 4

SUBMISSION OF ABSTRACTS AND REQUIREMENTS FOR SPEAKERS

1. In order to submit an Abstract, the interested person should fill in the appropriate form on the Event Website and submit the Abstract in accordance with the instructions and guidelines contained in the registration form and on the Event Website.
2. Abstracts should be authorial and should be sent in the form of a digital text file in .docx format.
3. The Committee will analyze the Abstracts and select the Participants for the poster presentation. The Organizers reserve the right to select the Abstracts. Abstracts will be accepted or rejected by the Committee on the basis of their subject matter and the concept of the Event.
4. When making the decisions referred to in paragraph 3 above, the Committee is guided by its own discretion and the need to ensure a high scientific level and thematic diversity of the Event. The Committee's decision is final and does not require justification, and the Participants are not entitled to appeal against it.
5. The deadline for submitting Abstracts is given on the Event Website. Theorganizers reserve the right to extend the deadlines for submitting Abstracts, of which they will inform the Candidates by announcing it on the Event Website.
6. On the basis of the submitted Abstracts, the Committee will select the persons qualified to take part in the Event and the presentation of the poster, and will inform them about the result of this qualification by sending information to the e-mail address provided when submitting the Abstract. Further contact aimed at determining the details and form of the presentation of the Abstract will take place in the manner agreed with the Organizers.
7. Selected Abstracts will be presented during the Event in the form of a poster. The provisions of § 7 apply accordingly to the Participants presenting the poster.
8. Submitting the Abstract constitutes a simultaneous statement by the Participant that:
    - The abstract is the result of the Participant's own work, is completely original and does not contain any legally protected elements, including borrowings from another work,
    - The abstract has never been published before,
    - the Participant is entitled to all copyrights to the Abstract, they are not limited or encumbered with any rights of third parties,
    - The Abstract or its individual elements will not infringe any rights of third parties, including the fact that the author of the Abstract holds the rights to both the text, tables and illustrative material (photographs, drawings, charts).
9. In the event that any of the submitted statements referred to in paragraph 8 above turns out to be untrue, the author shall be liable to the Organizers for any damages resulting therefrom.
10. By sending the Abstract, the Participant grants the Organizers a free-of-charge, non-exclusive, inorganic temporally, territorially, quantitatively and quantitatively license to use the Abstract, for the purpose of making a decision on qualifying for the presentation of the Abstract, as well as for the purpose of organizing and conducting the Event, in the fields of exploitation and on the principles analogous to those indicated in §7 of the Regulations
11. The provisions of § 7 shall apply to the Abstract and the poster accordingly.

12. If the author of the Abstract is more than one person, the person submitting the Abstract in the application form indicates the data of the co-authors and ensures that he/she has a valid and effective power of attorney from the other co-authors to grant consents, licenses and permits referred to in this paragraph or the right to grant an effective sublicense under the conditions specified in the Regulations, and each of the authors wishing to participate in the Event requires reporting his/her participation in accordance with § 2.
13. The Participant who has submitted a co-authored Abstract undertakes to acquire the rights referred to in paragraph 12 above and guarantees that he/she will own them at the time of submission.
14. The Participant who has submitted a co-authored Abstract declares and ensures that in the event of claims related to the Abstract being filed by third parties against the Organizers or entities authorized by them to use the Abstract:
    a) release the Organisers and persons authorised by them to use the Abstract from the claims in question, to the extent that they were obliged to acquire from third parties the rights referred to in paragraphs 12-13 above;
    b) shall be fully liable for any damages incurred by the Organisers and persons authorised by them to use the Abstracts, due to the claims referred to in point a) above, including in particular, but not exclusively, damages related to the claim for damages for the unlawful use of the Abstracts or their individual elements.
15. In order to perform the obligation referred to in paragraph 14 above, the Participant who has submitted a co-authored Abstract undertakes, in particular, to:
    a) on the date of receipt from the Organisers of the fact that any action has been brought against them and/or the authorised persons referred to in paragraph 14(a) and (b) above, or that proceedings have been instituted against them before any court or authority, release the Organisers and/or the authorised persons referred to in paragraph 14(a) and (b) above, by assuming such claim and obligations in connection with such proceedings (if legally possible) or proceed with such proceedings in accordance with applicable law;
    b) regardless of the obligation arising from point a) of this paragraph, it shall reimburse the Organizers and/or authorized persons referred to in paragraph 14 points a) and b) above, all expenses and costs incurred by them in connection with the proceedings referred to in point a) above. The Participant who has submitted a co-authored Abstract undertakes to protect the Organizers and authorized persons referred to in paragraph 14 points a) and b) above, to the fullest extent permitted by law, against liability related to the raised claim, awarded damages and expenses incurred in connection with the raised claim. In the event that the Organizers are obliged, on the basis of a final judgment of a common court or arbitration court, or on the basis of another decision or settlement concluded before a court, including an arbitration court, which could constitute the basis for enforcement, to pay damages or to provide any services as a result of any claim by a third party related to the use of the Abstracts, The Participant who has submitted a co-authorship of the Abstract undertakes to release the Organizers from such obligation by paying such compensation or performance to the entitled entity together with any additional costs, including in particular court costs, legal costs and interest, and in the event that the Organizers make a prior payment of such compensation or performance to the authorized entity, they will be obliged to immediately return to them all amounts paid in this regard.

16. The Participant undertakes to develop and present the author's Abstract and/or lecture and/or poster and guarantees that they will not violate the rights and personal rights of third parties, contain theses and views inciting hatred or discrimination against any persons on the basis of race, culture, ethnicity, religion, worldview or gender. In addition, it is unacceptable to propagate ideology and symbolism related to totalitarian regimes, as well as to present other topics prohibited by generally applicable regulations, or to violate the good name of the Organizers.

§ 5

RULES OF THE EVENT, RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF PARTICIPANTS

1. A detailed program of the Event will be published in the Agenda.
2. As part of the Event, the Participants are provided with a coffee and lunch break.
3. The Participants are fully responsible for the damages caused by them. The Participants are solely responsible for their violation of generally applicable law or violation of the rights of third parties. The liability of the Organizers in the above-mentioned scope is excluded.
4. To the extent permitted by law, the Organizers are not liable for any material or non-material damage suffered by the Participant as a result of participating in the Event. The Organizers are not liable for damages caused by third parties or the fault of the injured party. The Organizers are not liable for damages caused by force majeure.
5. The Organizers are not responsible for material belongings left unattended during the Event.
6. The Organizers do not cover or reimburse the costs of participation in the Event, nor the costs of travel, food and accommodation.
7. The Organizers are not responsible for the content presented by the Speakers.
8. The Participants are obliged to comply with the safety rules, health and safety and fire regulations in force on the premises where the Event is organized and the rules of the sanitary regime in force at that time, as well as these Regulations. In the event of the Participant's disturbance of public order and non-compliance with the applicable rules of the sanitary regime or disruption of the course of the Event, undertaking an action contrary to the law, good manners or harming the legitimate interests of third parties or aimed at circumventing or indicating an attempt to circumvent the Regulations or the rules of holding the Event or taking actions that violate the legitimate interests of the Organizer or harm its image, the Organizers' staff is entitled to:
    - to call on the Participant to behave appropriately;
    - request that the Participant leave the premises of the facility where the Event takes place or exclude the Participant from the Event;
    - call the relevant services in a situation where the behaviour qualifies for such intervention, including in particular when it poses a threat to other Participants or the Organiser's staff or property, third parties.
9. The Organizers are not responsible for events resulting from the Participants' failure to comply with the Regulations, failure to comply with the Organizer's recommendations and the instructions of the Event staff and services responsible for security and order.
10. In the event of noticing a threat to the life and health of the Participants, the Participant is obliged to immediately inform the Organizer's staff about it.
11. The Organizers may refuse both entry to the Event and to persons whose behavior may pose a threat to other Participants.

12. The Event may be cancelled or interrupted at any time if its commencement or continuation will endanger the safety of the Participants. By taking part in the Event, the Participants accept the established rules of the Event and its program and undertake not to influence its change or disrupt the course of the Event. In order to ensure safety at the Event site, the Jagiellonian University may use monitoring covering the entire Event area as well as its individual fragments. The rules for the use of video surveillance by the Jagiellonian University are set out in Ordinance No. 34 of the Rector of the Jagiellonian University of 16 May 2019 on: Regulations of video surveillance at the Jagiellonian University as amended. available in the Public Information Bulletin of the Jagiellonian University. The controller of personal data processed in video surveillance is the Jagiellonian University. Personal data will be processed in order to ensure the security of the Event in accordance with the Regulations of Video Surveillance available at the Jagiellonian University available on the https://bip.uj.edu.pl/ website and the information obligation regarding image processing in video surveillance available on the https://iod.uj.edu.pl/monitoring-wizyjny website pursuant to Article 6(1)(e) of the GDPR – in relation to video surveillance data. Providing personal data by the Participant in relation to the data referred to in point 3(c) above is voluntary, but failure to provide them – due to the obligation to ensure the safety of the Participants – results in the inability to participate in the Event. Video surveillance data may be processed for up to 3 months.

§ 6
PERSONAL DATA

In accordance with Article 13 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation, hereinafter referred to as "GDPR"), the Jagiellonian University and Sano inform that:

1. The controller of the Participant's personal data are:
   a) Jagiellonian University, 24 Gołębia Street, 31-007 Cracow, represented by the Rector of the Jagiellonian University.
   The Jagiellonian University has appointed a Data Protection Officer, 4 Czapskich Street, 31-110 Kraków. The Inspector can be contacted by e-mail: iod@uj.edu.pl or by phone at 12 663 12 25 – from Monday to Friday, from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
   b) Sano - Center for Individualized Computational Medicine - International Research Foundation with its registered office in Krakow at 36 Czarnowiejska Street, building C5 30-054 Krakow has appointed a Data Protection Officer. The Inspector can be contacted by e-mail: iod@sanoscience.org.
2. The Participant's personal data will be processed for the purpose of:

a) performance of the agreement, the subject of which is participation in the hackathon event on 7-8 November 2026 under the name "BrainHack" and therefore in order to register participation in the Event, i.e. on the basis of Article 6(1it). b GDPR, on the basis of an agreement concluded by accepting the Terms and Conditions. The event organized on 7-8 November 2026 by the Institute of Psychology of the Jagiellonian University and Sano will take place stationary and remotely;
b) conducting a photo report and recording of the Event for documentation, informational, educational, didactic purposes, promotion of the Websites and the Event itself, archiving – in relation to the Participants' personal data in the form of an image – on the basis of a granted permission in accordance with the Act on Copyright and Related Rights pursuant to Article 6(1)(e) of the GDPR, i.e. in the public interest, which is the organization of conferences and other events by higher education institutions in connection with Article 11 of the Law on Higher Education and Science.

3. Providing the personal data referred to in point 3 letter a above by the Participant is necessary to conclude the agreement, i.e. to participate in the Event. Providing personal data in the scope of image referred to in point 3 letter b above is voluntary.

4. The Participant's personal data may be made available to entities authorized to receive them on the basis of generally applicable provisions of law and may be transferred to service providers, among others, of IT systems and live streaming platforms, with which the joint controllers have concluded appropriate personal data entrustment agreements.

5. The personal data of the Participants will not be transferred to third countries (outside the European Economic Area) or to international organizations.

6. The personal data of the Participants will be stored for the duration of the organization of the Event and until the final settlement and closure of the Event, as well as until the statute of limitations for claims that may arise from the performance of the agreement referred to in paragraph 3(a), and to the extent indicated in paragraph 3(b) above – until the Participant objects to the processing of data. Data in the form of an image transmitted in live streaming will be processed in real time for the duration of the Event.

7. The Participant's personal data provided in the registration form will not be made available to third parties, subject to the provider of the system used to register for the Event.

8. The Participant's personal data in the form of an image may be recorded on photos from the Event used to create a photo report and a recording and processed on the conference website: sano.science and Sano's social media: LinkedIn, Facebook, Instagram in a way that allows access by third parties, for informational, documentary, educational, didactic purposes, promotion of the Co-Controllers and the Event itself, as well as archiving, including for the purposes of reporting from the Event – in accordance with the Regulations.

9. The Participant has the right to: obtain information about the processing of personal data and rights under the GDPR, access the content of their data and rectify them, as well as the right to delete personal data (unless further processing is necessary for the performance of a legal obligation or in order to establish, pursue or defend claims), and the right to limit processing, transfer data, object to processing – in cases and under the conditions specified in the GDPR.

10. The Participant's personal data will not be subject to automated decision-making or profiling.

11. The Participant has the right to lodge a complaint with the President of the Office for Personal Data Protection if it is considered that the processing of their personal data violates the provisions of the GDPR.

§ 7

SPEAKER

1. Speakers are obliged to register their participation in the Event in the manner referred to in §2 for Participants.
2. The speaker bears full responsibility for the form and content of his lecture/lecture/poster.
3. The Speaker undertakes to develop and present the lecture/lecture/poster and guarantees that the Speech will not violate the rights and personal rights of third parties.
4. If any part of the lecture/lecture/poster consists of legally protected elements to which the Speaker will not be entitled, the Speaker guarantees that he is entitled to use them to the extent necessary to deliver the lecture/lecture or display the poster and grant the Organizers a license with the right to grant the sublicense referred to in this paragraph, without the need for the Organizers to obtain additional consents and permits. Upon the presentation of the lecture, the Speaker grants the Organizers further licenses, permits and authorizations to use the legally protected elements referred to in the previous sentence with a scope analogous to the one indicated in this paragraph.
5. By attending a lecture/poster, the Speaker accepts that his image and voice will be recorded by the Organizers or an entity acting on his behalf in the form of an audiovideo or photograph.
6. The Speaker grants the Organizers a free-of-charge, non-exclusive, unlimited in time, territory, and quantity license with the right to grant sublicenses with the same scope as the license for the use of the lecture/lecture/poster in the following fields of exploitation (hereinafter referred to as: "License"):
   - fixing and permanently or temporarily multiplying the lecture/lecture/poster in whole or in part by any means and in any form, including on media, using all available techniques, including audio-video recording and photo reports of the poster, lecture/multimedia presentation accompanying the lecture delivered by the Speaker,
   - using a lecture/presentation/poster recorded in the form of an audio-video or photographic recording in whole or in part, independently or as part of a collective work, in combination with works and elements freely selected (including lectures by other Speakers, with the graphic design of the platforms on which it would be placed, image and sound) as well as from its developments, adaptations and any materials, graphics, fragments, shots, documentation created both during and after recording the recording, including in particular its use, sharing on the Internet, as well as as within any telecommunications services, with the use of any systems and devices, on any social networks, on other websites and on the Event Website, in particular on social networks such as Facebook, YouTube, LinkedIn, X, Instagram, Slack, etc., rental and lending, public playback, television broadcasting and rebroadcasting, entering into computer memory, and making available to the public in computer networks enabling access at a selected place and time, preparation of foreign-language versions, as well as placing duplicated media on the market, making the media available to the public.

6. The license also includes the authorization of the Organizers to exercise and allow third parties to exercise the subsidiary rights to the lecture/lecture/poster, in all fields of exploitation referred to in this paragraph.
7. The Speaker undertakes not to exercise the moral rights to the lecture/lecture/poster against the Organizers and entities authorized by them, and in particular the right to the inviolability of the content and form and its fair use – if such use is made in accordance with the License, to decide on the first making of the lecture/lecture/poster available to the audience, to supervise the manner of using the lecture lecture/lecture/poster and decide on the manner of marking the author of the lecture/lecture/poster, with the proviso that the Organizers, at the request of the Speaker and as far as possible, are obliged to respect the Speaker's wish to designate him as a person presenting the lecture/lecture/poster.
8. In the event that third parties submit claims against the Organizer or entities authorized by the Organizer to use the lecture/poster/Abstract related to these works or their individual elements, the Speaker: shall release the Organizer and persons authorized by the Organizer to use them from the claims in question, to the extent that it was obliged to acquire from third parties the rights to legally protected elements, including copyright and related rights to these works and their individual elements, the right to exercise rights dependent thereon and to obtain from them the permits and authorizations referred to in these Terms and Conditions, and shall be fully responsible for any damages incurred by the Organizer and persons authorized by the Organizer to use the Lecture/Poster/Abstract due to the submission of claims against them referred to above.

§ 8

IMAGE

1. The Organisers will record the course of the Event with the use of video, sound and image recording devices in the form of photographs/photo reports (hereinafter referred to as the "Photo Report") and recordings (hereinafter referred to as the "Recording") in particular for educational, didactic, informational, documentation, reporting, advertising and promotion of the Organisers and Event Partners.
2. The image of the Participant, including the Participant who is the Speaker, recorded in the Photo Report and in the Recording in connection with participation in the Event ("Image") will be made available in accordance with the following rules:
    a) The image may be published: by the Organizers and Partners, in particular on the Event Website, on the Organizers' and Partners' websites, on the Organizers' and Partners' social media profiles and on the Partners' websites, at promotional events of the Organizers and Partners and in the promotional materials of the Organizers and Partners, as well as on the social networks of the Organizers and Partners such as Facebook, YouTube, Instagram, LinkedIn, X.

b) The image will be published without each time indicating the Participant as a person visible in the Photo Report and/or in the Recording, and in particular without indicating his/her name and surname, as well as together with other photos from the Conference
c) The image will be published by: within one month of the event
d) The image will be made available to: an unlimited circle of recipients – in particular in connection with publication on the Internet
e) The image will be used until the consent is withdrawn. The consent can be withdrawn by contacting the Organizers at the following data:

1) For the Jagiellonian University:

Address: Instytut Psychologii UJ, ul. Ingardena 6, 30-046

e-mail: instytut.psychologii@uj.edu.pl

2) For Sano:

Address: 36/C5 Czarnowiejska Street, 30-054 Kraków,

E-mail: info@sanoscience.org;

3. By registering for the Event, the Participant expresses unlimited time, territorially and quantitatively consent to the use of the Image, as well as its voice (including its statements or their fragments) for the purposes indicated in paragraph 1 above without the right to remuneration on the above basis.
4. The consent referred to in paragraphs 1-3 above includes the use of the Participant's Image recorded in the Photo Report and/or Recording and is granted to each of the Organizers separately, and each of the Organizers is an independent controller of the personal data covered by the consent.
5. The use of the Participant's image may not take place for mocking or satirical purposes, which may damage the Participant's good name or reputation.
6. The use of the Image includes recording, processing, reproduction and multiple dissemination of the Participant's Image recorded in connection with participation in the Event and in accordance with the Regulations.
7. In connection with the use of the Image, the Participant shall not exercise the right to control and approve the use of the Image each time, including the right to approve in relation to the final form of the Photo Report and/or the Recording in which it was used and the right to indicate the Participant as a person visible in the Photo Report and/or in the Recording.
8. The Participant is aware that the photo report and the recording of the Event will be made available on the Internet and will be available, m.in. on the websites of the Organizers and Partners, profiles on their social networks and platforms such as YouTube, Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn, X, Slack, etc. for an unlimited number of people.

~~9.~~ The image of the Participantwill be used only in connection with the Event – for educational, didactic, informational, documentation purposes, advertising and promotion of the Organizers and the Event itself, archiving, as a report from the Event.

§ 9
CONFERENCE MATERIALS

1. When making conference materials (hereinafter referred to as "Conference Materials") available to the Participants, the Organizers pay special attention to the need for the Participants to respect intellectual property rights. The Participants undertake to use the Conference Materials made available to them by the Organizers only for their own personal use. Modifying, copying, transmitting, publicly reproducing and any use of these Conference Materials for commercial purposes requires the prior written consent of the Organizers or another authorized entity. The Participants are fully responsible for any damages resulting from their conduct contrary to the above disclaimer.

§ 10
FINAL PROVISIONS

1. Sano declares that the services provided by Sano as a co-organizer of the Event are co-financed from the budget of the Teaming for Excellence project implemented by Sano as part of the promotion of the European Union Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 85733.
2. The Regulations are valid from the date of their announcement on the Event's website.
3. The Organizers reserve the right to make changes to the Regulations.
4. Changes made to the Terms and Conditions shall enter into force upon publication of the amended Terms and Conditions on the Event website. With regard to Participants who have accepted the Terms and Conditions prior to the change, the change shall enter into force within 7 days of being notified of the change to the Terms and Conditions by e-mail and not objecting to the change within the aforementioned period.
5. The Organizers reserve the right to cancel or postpone the date of the Event in the event of circumstances that are impossible to predict on the date of publication of the Regulations.
6. In the event of cancellation or postponement of the date of the Event or change of the Agenda, the Organizers shall not be liable for any damages suffered by persons who have registered for their participation in the Event.
7. By registering and participating in the Event, the Participant undertakes to apply the Terms and Conditions.
8. The Terms and Conditions do not in any way limit or exclude the rights of the Participants resulting from mandatory provisions of law.
9. In matters not regulated by these Terms and Conditions, the provisions of Polish law, including the provisions of the Civil Code, shall also apply.